

Dave Keenom

Dave Keenom is a Sergeant with a Middle Tennessee Sheriff's Office, assigned as Range Master and the Emergency Services Units Entry and Sniper Section Leader. Dave served with U.S. Army as an MP and SRT team member, explosive breacher, sniper and team leader. He currently serves with the Tennessee Army National Guard as a senior NCO and is a national level shooting team competitor for the TN National Guard, competing in several weapon systems.

Dave has served as an instructor for several notable organizations and is a plank holder with the High Ground Training Group. His extensive law enforcement background includes patrol, investigations, supervision, instruction and SWAT. He served in SWAT teams with extremely active operational tempos and brings an abundance of knowledge to the instructional realm.

Dave's presence on the range ensures that someone is learning and improving. Ever humble, Dave simply refers to himself as a professional student continuing to learn and hone his craft.
