

George B.

George is a sergeant with a Department of the Air Force Police unit. During his career, George served in local and federal agencies with uniform patrol and SWAT assignments since 2002. His current assignment involves supervisory and training duties at a U.S. Airforce base.

George is a graduate of the SPS Level I, II and IV sniper courses being recognized in each for outstanding achievement. He is also a graduate of the SPS/HGTG Law Enforcement Firearms Instructor course and holds a number of other instructor certifications including Active Shooter Instructor, Shoot Move Communicate Instructor, Close Combat Mission Capability Kit (CCMCK), Chief Range Official (CRO) and Range Safety Officer (RSO). He has been an HGTG instructor since 2011.

